

The Interfaith Center of New York, Building Bridges Coalition of Staten Island, and Richmond County Savings Foundation are pleased to announce a free professional development seminar for K-12 teachers.

Education and Religious Diversity

Teaching for Today's Staten Island

Tuesday
March 15th

•
4:00 to 6:00 pm

Todt Hill - Westerleigh
Library

•
2550 Victory
Boulevard

In today's climate of religious intolerance and extremism, K-12 teachers in public, private, and parochial schools can help to foster interfaith understanding.

Please join us on March 15th to develop the tools you need to create a more inclusive classroom – and a more inclusive society.

A panel of faith leaders and educators will help teachers understand the rich diversity of Staten Island, and the appropriate role of religion in K-12 schools and curricula.

The seminar is free, including snacks and materials, but space is limited. To register, please email education@interfaithcenter.org.

And to learn about additional programs and resources for teachers, please visit www.religiousworldsnyc.org.

The seminar is cosponsored by

Use of library space by the Interfaith Center of New York for this program does not indicate endorsement by the New York Public Library.